In this talk the speaker will give a brief overview of some opportunities for research funding that are available at the Munitions Directorate at Eglin Air Force Base in Northwest Florida. He will begin by giving a brief introduction to the Munitions Directorate, its areas of interest, and its research mission, and how these contrast with the broad spectrum of other Air Force requirements and missions. Finally, he will discuss a couple of specific funded research opportunities available to academic researchers that are specific to the Munitions Directorate which could provide research funding to the CNEL.
